

Weather Indications: Fair, Warmer.
The World's
Average Circulation
For the First Two Months of 1894,
433,167 PER DAY.
PRICE ONE CENT.

Weather Indications: Fair, Warmer.
THE SUNDAY WORLD'S
Next Sunday, EASTER NUMBER.
Don't Fail to Get It.
It will be splendidly illustrated and full of striking features and ILLUMINATED COVER.
PRICE ONE CENT.

Don't Miss The SUNDAY WORLD EASTER NUMBER Next Sunday.

EXTRA. 2 O'CLOCK.

NO PISTOLS IN COURT

So Breckinridge's Lawyers Assure Judge Bradley.

It Was Reported the Colonel's Counsel Were Armed.

No Judicial Action Taken on Yesterday's Fisticuffs.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, March 13.—Such a gathering of lawyers as filled the Circuit Court room, where the Pollard-Breckinridge case is on trial, this morning, has seldom been seen in Washington. Members of the local bar crowded the place to see what sentence Judge Bradley would mete out to the visiting Kentuckians who had made a pugilistic assault upon Miss Pollard's attorneys the night before.

Within the recollection of the court officials there had been no instance of a resort to fisticuffs by practitioners before the local bar, and the sentiment of lawyers was for a strong punishment of their brethren who had so disturbed the dignity of the court.

Col. Breckinridge, smiling as usual, was shaking hands with his cousin, Gen. Joseph Breckinridge, when Judge Bradley took his seat on the bench. There was a moment of very impressive silence following the roll call of jurors, the Judge seeming to wait for explanations from the lawyers. Then he said: "I notice the papers have laid out a course of procedure for me to follow regarding an assurance just outside the court-room after the court had adjourned yesterday evening, which the court did not see, and which the parties concerned in it probably regret as much as the court does."

"It is not a matter of which the court can take judicial notice. As it was not the hour of adjournment when the plaintiff's counsel had finished speaking last night, and as I noticed some evidence of excitement on the part of the defendant's counsel, I thought I best adjourn the court, thinking that after a night of thought over the connection in which certain words had been used, the counsel might look upon them differently. Had the trouble referred to taken place in the court room, it would have been the duty of the court to take judicial notice of it and he would have done so promptly."

There was a pause and a rustle of surprise, after which Judge Bradley proceeded: "There is another matter about which I deem it my duty to state. Some of the gentlemen representing the defendant have come into the court room armed. There is law for the punishment of the offense of carrying concealed weapons, and as such conduct is unlawful, it is most reprehensible. If the court has information adequate to warrant its action, it will begin in the police court of the district."

Here Mr. Butterworth rose, stating that he had never carried a weapon, and thought the counsel should be given an opportunity to enter a disclaimer. He would regret the occurrence of such a breach of order as much as the court. One by one the lawyers for Col. Breckinridge declared that they had not carried weapons. Mr. Shelby beginning with the statement: "I have never carried a weapon in my life. Mr. McKenney following with a similar statement. "As I am the defendant's counsel, I have never entered the presence of a court armed, and then Mr. Thompson remarked: "As I am the plaintiff's counsel, I have never entered the presence of a court armed, and then Mr. Carrington rose to say that he wished it understood that the information had not come from any of the plaintiff's counsel, and that he was as truly as any man, but remarked that it had been given him by reputable parties. The defendant's counsel, however, thus being closed, Attorney Still, for the defense, was asking to be permitted an argument in support of his motion to suppress the depositions taken the day before the trial when Judge Bradley intervened. "I had thought it necessary, as the court was about to decide in your favor."

SHOT THROUGH A WINDOW.

The Bullet Lodged Above the Bed Where Bennett Was Sleeping.

The police of the Butler street station, Brooklyn, are to-day investigating what appears to have been an attempt by some mischievous person to frighten the occupants of the house at 62 Bergen street.

Reini Bennett was about to retire shortly before midnight. He was startled by the crash of a pane of glass. A bullet buried itself in the wall just above the bed. The bed was empty, and the sleeping. No report was heard, and the police are inclined to think that the assailant was fired from an air-gun.

Multum in Parvo.
The World Almanac
FOR
25 CENTS.

MAN-OF-WAR DRIVEN BACK.

United States Steamer Marion Damaged in a Typhoon.

Puts Into Yokohama for Repairs While Bound to 'Frisco.

(By Associated Press.)
SAN FRANCISCO, March 13.—The United States man-of-war Marion, which should have been well on her way to this port, is at Yokohama undergoing extensive repairs. About a fortnight ago a cablegram was received here from Yokohama saying that the vessel had sailed, but had been obliged to return for repairs. The steamer Gaelic, which has arrived from the Orient, brings news that the damage was very serious.

SUICIDE BY FIRE.

Missouri Banker's Wife Driven Mad by Family Care.

(By Associated Press.)
SAVANNAH, Mo., March 13.—Mrs. Wells, wife of W. S. Wells, cashier of the State bank of this city, saturated with grief, and with her mind in a state of delirium, set fire to her home, and then set herself on fire. Life was extinct when the flames were put out.

SAVED HETTY GREEN'S LIFE.

But the Money Queen Never Even Thanked Policeman Kane.

She Got In Front of Two Cable Cars and Had a Close Call.

John Kane, policeman No. 70, of the 10th precinct, has a story to tell of saving the life of the richest woman in America, a few minutes after 7 o'clock last night, but he is not a penny richer to-day through his act of bravery.

Hetty Green, with her sixty or more millions of dollars, is not given to spending money freely. But Policeman Kane, who belongs to the 10th precinct of Broadway, has the satisfaction of knowing that scores of people who were passing along Broadway, witnessed the act of heroism.

SHOT THROUGH A WINDOW.

The Bullet Lodged Above the Bed Where Bennett Was Sleeping.

The police of the Butler street station, Brooklyn, are to-day investigating what appears to have been an attempt by some mischievous person to frighten the occupants of the house at 62 Bergen street.

Reini Bennett was about to retire shortly before midnight. He was startled by the crash of a pane of glass. A bullet buried itself in the wall just above the bed. The bed was empty, and the sleeping. No report was heard, and the police are inclined to think that the assailant was fired from an air-gun.

Multum in Parvo.
The World Almanac
FOR
25 CENTS.

DA GAMA'S GIVING UP

It Is Conditioned on the Safety of Himself and His Men.

Probability that Peixoto Will Consent to an Arrangement.

(Copyright, 1894, by the Associated Press.)
RIO DE JANEIRO, March 13.—The report which was circulated soon after the arrival of the Government fleet off the bay of Rio de Janeiro to the effect that Admiral Saldanha da Gama, the rebel commander in these waters, contemplated surrendering, turns out to be correct, and in all probability the Brazilian rebellion, so far as Rio de Janeiro is concerned, will soon be at an end.

SUICIDE BY FIRE.

Missouri Banker's Wife Driven Mad by Family Care.

(By Associated Press.)
SAVANNAH, Mo., March 13.—Mrs. Wells, wife of W. S. Wells, cashier of the State bank of this city, saturated with grief, and with her mind in a state of delirium, set fire to her home, and then set herself on fire. Life was extinct when the flames were put out.

SAVED HETTY GREEN'S LIFE.

But the Money Queen Never Even Thanked Policeman Kane.

She Got In Front of Two Cable Cars and Had a Close Call.

John Kane, policeman No. 70, of the 10th precinct, has a story to tell of saving the life of the richest woman in America, a few minutes after 7 o'clock last night, but he is not a penny richer to-day through his act of bravery.

Hetty Green, with her sixty or more millions of dollars, is not given to spending money freely. But Policeman Kane, who belongs to the 10th precinct of Broadway, has the satisfaction of knowing that scores of people who were passing along Broadway, witnessed the act of heroism.

SHOT THROUGH A WINDOW.

The Bullet Lodged Above the Bed Where Bennett Was Sleeping.

The police of the Butler street station, Brooklyn, are to-day investigating what appears to have been an attempt by some mischievous person to frighten the occupants of the house at 62 Bergen street.

Reini Bennett was about to retire shortly before midnight. He was startled by the crash of a pane of glass. A bullet buried itself in the wall just above the bed. The bed was empty, and the sleeping. No report was heard, and the police are inclined to think that the assailant was fired from an air-gun.

Multum in Parvo.
The World Almanac
FOR
25 CENTS.

HUNDREDS OF CHECKS

Lovecraft Sent Large Sums of Money to His Relatives.

Yet He Disinherited Them in Favor of Col. Kearney.

(Copyright, 1894, by the Associated Press.)
The legal fight for the possession of the estate left by the late Frederick A. Lovecraft, who committed suicide in his flat, at Broadway and Thirtieth street, on Oct. 26 last, was continued before Surrogate Arnold to-day.

SUICIDE BY FIRE.

Missouri Banker's Wife Driven Mad by Family Care.

(By Associated Press.)
SAVANNAH, Mo., March 13.—Mrs. Wells, wife of W. S. Wells, cashier of the State bank of this city, saturated with grief, and with her mind in a state of delirium, set fire to her home, and then set herself on fire. Life was extinct when the flames were put out.

SAVED HETTY GREEN'S LIFE.

But the Money Queen Never Even Thanked Policeman Kane.

She Got In Front of Two Cable Cars and Had a Close Call.

John Kane, policeman No. 70, of the 10th precinct, has a story to tell of saving the life of the richest woman in America, a few minutes after 7 o'clock last night, but he is not a penny richer to-day through his act of bravery.

Hetty Green, with her sixty or more millions of dollars, is not given to spending money freely. But Policeman Kane, who belongs to the 10th precinct of Broadway, has the satisfaction of knowing that scores of people who were passing along Broadway, witnessed the act of heroism.

SHOT THROUGH A WINDOW.

The Bullet Lodged Above the Bed Where Bennett Was Sleeping.

The police of the Butler street station, Brooklyn, are to-day investigating what appears to have been an attempt by some mischievous person to frighten the occupants of the house at 62 Bergen street.

Reini Bennett was about to retire shortly before midnight. He was startled by the crash of a pane of glass. A bullet buried itself in the wall just above the bed. The bed was empty, and the sleeping. No report was heard, and the police are inclined to think that the assailant was fired from an air-gun.

Multum in Parvo.
The World Almanac
FOR
25 CENTS.

FORCING THE ISSUE.

Conservative Papers Try to Drive Rosebery to the Country.

Taking Up the Premier's Words to the House of Lords.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, March 13.—Lord Rosebery's statement that England must be convinced of the justice of Irish Home Rule, while causing great excitement in both sections of the Irish Parliamentary party, it was hailed with delight by the Conservative papers, which seem to regard it as a settled fact that Home Rule will be indefinitely shelved.

SUICIDE BY FIRE.

Missouri Banker's Wife Driven Mad by Family Care.

(By Associated Press.)
SAVANNAH, Mo., March 13.—Mrs. Wells, wife of W. S. Wells, cashier of the State bank of this city, saturated with grief, and with her mind in a state of delirium, set fire to her home, and then set herself on fire. Life was extinct when the flames were put out.

SAVED HETTY GREEN'S LIFE.

But the Money Queen Never Even Thanked Policeman Kane.

She Got In Front of Two Cable Cars and Had a Close Call.

John Kane, policeman No. 70, of the 10th precinct, has a story to tell of saving the life of the richest woman in America, a few minutes after 7 o'clock last night, but he is not a penny richer to-day through his act of bravery.

Hetty Green, with her sixty or more millions of dollars, is not given to spending money freely. But Policeman Kane, who belongs to the 10th precinct of Broadway, has the satisfaction of knowing that scores of people who were passing along Broadway, witnessed the act of heroism.

SHOT THROUGH A WINDOW.

The Bullet Lodged Above the Bed Where Bennett Was Sleeping.

The police of the Butler street station, Brooklyn, are to-day investigating what appears to have been an attempt by some mischievous person to frighten the occupants of the house at 62 Bergen street.

Reini Bennett was about to retire shortly before midnight. He was startled by the crash of a pane of glass. A bullet buried itself in the wall just above the bed. The bed was empty, and the sleeping. No report was heard, and the police are inclined to think that the assailant was fired from an air-gun.

Multum in Parvo.
The World Almanac
FOR
25 CENTS.

STRIKERS IN A RIOT.

Paterson Dyers Break Down Doors and Ruin Material.

Driven from One Shop at the Point of a Revolver.

(By Associated Press.)
PATERSON, N. J., March 13.—The striking dyers' helpers at the Weidman works became a lawless mob this forenoon. The men marched to Auger & Simon's dye house, battered down the doors and entered the dyeing room.

SUICIDE BY FIRE.

Missouri Banker's Wife Driven Mad by Family Care.

(By Associated Press.)
SAVANNAH, Mo., March 13.—Mrs. Wells, wife of W. S. Wells, cashier of the State bank of this city, saturated with grief, and with her mind in a state of delirium, set fire to her home, and then set herself on fire. Life was extinct when the flames were put out.

SAVED HETTY GREEN'S LIFE.

But the Money Queen Never Even Thanked Policeman Kane.

She Got In Front of Two Cable Cars and Had a Close Call.

John Kane, policeman No. 70, of the 10th precinct, has a story to tell of saving the life of the richest woman in America, a few minutes after 7 o'clock last night, but he is not a penny richer to-day through his act of bravery.

Hetty Green, with her sixty or more millions of dollars, is not given to spending money freely. But Policeman Kane, who belongs to the 10th precinct of Broadway, has the satisfaction of knowing that scores of people who were passing along Broadway, witnessed the act of heroism.

SHOT THROUGH A WINDOW.

The Bullet Lodged Above the Bed Where Bennett Was Sleeping.

The police of the Butler street station, Brooklyn, are to-day investigating what appears to have been an attempt by some mischievous person to frighten the occupants of the house at 62 Bergen street.

Reini Bennett was about to retire shortly before midnight. He was startled by the crash of a pane of glass. A bullet buried itself in the wall just above the bed. The bed was empty, and the sleeping. No report was heard, and the police are inclined to think that the assailant was fired from an air-gun.

Multum in Parvo.
The World Almanac
FOR
25 CENTS.

WOULDN'T DESERT HER BABY.

Mary Argue Walked the Streets for Two Weeks.

Now the Little One Is Dying in Bellevue Hospital.

In Bellevue Hospital this morning there were two patients that attracted more than usual attention. They are mother and child. The mother is pretty and about thirty years old. The child is only fifteen months old. The former is in the prison ward, the latter dying in the child's ward. The woman gives the name of Mary Argue.

SUICIDE BY FIRE.

Missouri Banker's Wife Driven Mad by Family Care.

(By Associated Press.)
SAVANNAH, Mo., March 13.—Mrs. Wells, wife of W. S. Wells, cashier of the State bank of this city, saturated with grief, and with her mind in a state of delirium, set fire to her home, and then set herself on fire. Life was extinct when the flames were put out.

SAVED HETTY GREEN'S LIFE.

But the Money Queen Never Even Thanked Policeman Kane.

She Got In Front of Two Cable Cars and Had a Close Call.

John Kane, policeman No. 70, of the 10th precinct, has a story to tell of saving the life of the richest woman in America, a few minutes after 7 o'clock last night, but he is not a penny richer to-day through his act of bravery.

Hetty Green, with her sixty or more millions of dollars, is not given to spending money freely. But Policeman Kane, who belongs to the 10th precinct of Broadway, has the satisfaction of knowing that scores of people who were passing along Broadway, witnessed the act of heroism.

SHOT THROUGH A WINDOW.

The Bullet Lodged Above the Bed Where Bennett Was Sleeping.

The police of the Butler street station, Brooklyn, are to-day investigating what appears to have been an attempt by some mischievous person to frighten the occupants of the house at 62 Bergen street.

Reini Bennett was about to retire shortly before midnight. He was startled by the crash of a pane of glass. A bullet buried itself in the wall just above the bed. The bed was empty, and the sleeping. No report was heard, and the police are inclined to think that the assailant was fired from an air-gun.

Multum in Parvo.
The World Almanac
FOR
25 CENTS.

EXTRA. 2 O'CLOCK.

BITTEN BY HER CHILD.

Mrs. Lavery Inoculated with Scarlet Fever Poison.

Baby's Teeth Closed on Her Finger While She Was Attending It.

(By Associated Press.)
Mrs. Patrick Lavery, of 2070 Second avenue, is seriously ill with blood-poisoning.

Her two-year-old child, ill with scarlet fever, buried one of its tiny teeth in a finger of Mrs. Lavery's right hand a week ago, and now it is not unlikely that the mother will lose her hand, if not her life.

SUICIDE BY FIRE.

Missouri Banker's Wife Driven Mad by Family Care.

(By Associated Press.)
SAVANNAH, Mo., March 13.—Mrs. Wells, wife of W. S. Wells, cashier of the State bank of this city, saturated with grief, and with her mind in a state of delirium, set fire to her home, and then set herself on fire. Life was extinct when the flames were put out.

SAVED HETTY GREEN'S LIFE.

But the Money Queen Never Even Thanked Policeman Kane.

She Got In Front of Two Cable Cars and Had a Close Call.

John Kane, policeman No. 70, of the 10th precinct, has a story to tell of saving the life of the richest woman in America, a few minutes after 7 o'clock last night, but he is not a penny richer to-day through his act of bravery.

Hetty Green, with her sixty or more millions of dollars, is not given to spending money freely. But Policeman Kane, who belongs to the 10th precinct of Broadway, has the satisfaction of knowing that scores of people who were passing along Broadway, witnessed the act of heroism.

SHOT THROUGH A WINDOW.

The Bullet Lodged Above the Bed Where Bennett Was Sleeping.

The police of the Butler street station, Brooklyn, are to-day investigating what appears to have been an attempt by some mischievous person to frighten the occupants of the house at 62 Bergen street.

Reini Bennett was about to retire shortly before midnight. He was startled by the crash of a pane of glass. A bullet buried itself in the wall just above the bed. The bed was empty, and the sleeping. No report was heard, and the police are inclined to think that the assailant was fired from an air-gun.

Multum in Parvo.
The World Almanac
FOR
25 CENTS.